Preface

This book is the story of the descendants of Nathan Gilbert Joyner. Following the listing of the descendants of Nathan Gilbert Joyner, there are ancestor lists of the spouses of some of Nathan's descendants. No effort was made to verify these associated lines, but they are included as they were given.

How to Use This Book

Each person in the book is given a number beginning with Nathan Gilbert Joyner (J) and digits are added for each generation. For example J-3-5-2-1 denotes that the person was the first child of J-3-5-2 who was the second child of J-3-5 who was the fifth child of J-3 who was the third child of J (Nathan Gilbert Joyner).

By finding the number of the person you wish to trace and then dropping the last digit, you can quickly follow backward. By taking a number and adding digits you can also move forward through the book.

Beginning with Nathan's children, the book is further divided into chapters, one for each of his children. Some of these are broken into smaller sections to reduce the inevitable confusion. This is done to make your journey through the book easier.

Gilbert Joyner was born in Mississippi or Alabama and is buried at Old Union Baptist Church Cemetery in SW Kemper County, MS. On Saturday before the 4th Sunday in October, 1851, he was chosen as pastor of Fellowship Primitive Baptist Church (now Gumlog) in Lauderdale County, MS (See appendix for records). On October 14, 1865, in Sumter County, AL, he preached to the organizational meeting of the Zion Rest Primitive Baptist Association and founded his remarks on the 127th Psalm, 1st verse: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it: except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain."

He continued as a delegate to the Zion Rest Association from Mt. Olivet, Kemper County, MS until 1868.Gilbert was a Mason - member of Longstreet Lodge #268 at Rushing's Store in Lauderdale County, MS. He was initiated, passed, and raised in 1867 and listed as "died, P.M. Oct 28th 1880. In 1868 he was appointed to a committee by the Zion Rest Association to cite a sister Church that had "violated orthodox principles of the Gospel in suffering or permitting one of her members to join the Masonic Fraternity..." The next year two delegations claiming to be from Mt Olivet reported to the Association, but the opposing delegation was seated and Rev N G Joyner apparently started his "Joynerite" churches at Rocky Ridge in Kemper County and neighboring churches, and preached several years at Old Union. (See Church Records in appendix)

He was a circuit preacher. After preaching in Alabama and returning through a sleet storm, he took double pneumonia. He preached his last sermon at Union Church in Kemper County on his death bed. (See Remembrances: Adam Hurt)

Sefranah "Jane" McCraw was born in Alabama. Her parents, Ivy McCraw and Sarah Pitts were married in Perry County, AL 22 Oct 1822 (Copy in appendix). According to the Family Bible, Janie's siblings included Polly McCraw b 6 Jan 1824 and James Hearn McCraw b 26 Sep 1826. The family probably moved to Fayette County, AL by 1830 and to Smith County, MS by 1860. Janie married circa 1842 and lived in Mississippi until circa 1900.

Taking her two younger children, she went to live with her son, James Harrison Joyner, in Brownwood, TX. She was buried there in Greenleaf Cemetery in 1909. She is remembered by grandchildren as being short in stature, living as a very devout Christian, but having a fiery temper at times (see "Remembrances" with Albert Joyner). A more complete summary of this McCraw family may be found later in this book.
